

COMMERCIAL PILOT CERTIFICATE SINGLE ENGINE 141

TRAINING PROGRAM

Training Course	Commercial Pilot Certificate Single Engine 141
Course Duration	Approximately 11 weeks
Licencing Authority	Federal Aviation Administration (FAA)

TRAINING COURSE

The course is designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills they need to demonstrate competency and test for the FAA Commercial Pilot Certificate.

TRAINING LOCATION: – L3HARRIS AIRLINE ACADEMY (US) – SANFORD, FLORIDA

ENTRY CONDITION – PREREQUISITES

- > Successful completion of selection process
- > Private Pilot Certificate and Instrument Rating
- > Payment of training fees
- > Proof of citizenship*
- > FAA medical certificate
- > *For those students who are not U.S. Citizens, the following items are also required: proof of funding for all educational expenses, demonstration of English language proficiency, Insurance Policy, and other international student enrollment documents

Note: You will not be registered for the program until you have provided evidence of compliance with all of the above prerequisite requirements. Failure to provide such evidence within three (3) months of signature of this agreement may result in your Training Agreement being cancelled.

TRAINING INCLUSIONS – ITEMS PROVIDED BY L3HARRIS TO SUPPORT YOUR TRAINING

- > Safety management software
- > Personalized academic advising and career services
- > Unlimited tutoring and academic support

Ground School	In accordance with the Training Course Outline, academic instruction to prepare for FAA knowledge test and flight lab training.
Flight Training	Flight training to cover each lesson (first attempt) in the Training Course Outline <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > 84.0 hours of flight instruction/briefings > 46 hours in a single-engine aircraft, such as a Cessna 172 or Piper Archer > 3.5 hours in a Flight Training Device and/or Advanced Aircraft Training Device
Examinations	On-site practical flight tests (first attempt) with Designated Pilot Examiner

EXCLUSIONS FROM TRAINING FEE – YOU SHALL BE PERSONALLY RESPONSIBLE FOR PROVIDING TO SUPPORT YOUR TRAINING

Examinations and Licences	> FAA Knowledge Test Fee
Accommodations	> Students are responsible for securing their own accommodations. Limited off-campus accommodations are available for an additional monthly fee on a first come, first served basis
Living Costs	> Food and other personal living costs > Transportation (monthly bus passes for travel between select off-campus housing and the Academy are available for purchase) > Medical insurance (international students may purchase through the Academy)
Supplies	> iPad, headset, books, online prepware, IFR software subscription, uniforms, checklists, VFR sectional and terminal, chart supplements (included for students enrolling in the Accelerated Airline Pilot Track and Professional Pilot Program)

ADDITIONAL FEES

General	> Application fee > Fees related to obtaining and maintaining a foreign student visa
---------	---

ADDITIONAL TRAINING

Refer to Additional Charges Policy

